Thanks Cyndie,

The meeting is at 1:30 tomorrow, so something before then would be great. We can set you up with a computer to use here any time tomorrow.

Jamie and Jake...

I will be happy to supply testimony regarding items below.
I am leaving tomorrow night (Thursday) for the mainland...so am busy getting everything here wrapped up.
I am "assuming" you want something in writing from me. I don't know what your timeframes are and I am without a computer for the time being.
I can come by the office tomorrow before I leave and prepare something for you if you have a spare computer I can utilize. If tomorrow, does not work for you...it may be a while as I will be without a car or computer access for the next week or so.

Jamie...

Call me and leave me a message if this works and I will plan to come by tomorrow to write something up.

Hi Cyndie – for some reason Jake couldn't email you the below email. Here it is.

Hope all is well Cyndie!

Jamie told me she talked to you earlier and that you'd heard about Thursday's Council meeting that centers around ~~the~~ written testimony (that also appeared in the paper on Saturday)

It would be helpful to have testimony from you at the meeting, talking about the differences that you experienced between Craig's administration and Shay's and the improvements that Shay has made, especially with respect to the victim witness program.

It may also be helpful to detail your extensive management background, and, as we discussed before you left, how Erin's actions surrounding her departure were particularly shocking.

Thanks for your help, we miss you and good luck on your move!

-Jake
